

About us _

KhatriTex holds a legacy in the field of prints and design since 1989. Being situated in Jaipur which is a home to many craftsperson, we consciously work in preserving the age-old art of hand block prints.

These handcrafted designs are creatively imbibed in a large range of home furnishing products that we offer.

From the initial sketch of a design to its development in hand carved block, each textile piece holds a unique identity of fine craftsmanship and design aesthetics.

Along with a wide range of prints we also have a huge options of colors, suitable for varied customers and their homes.

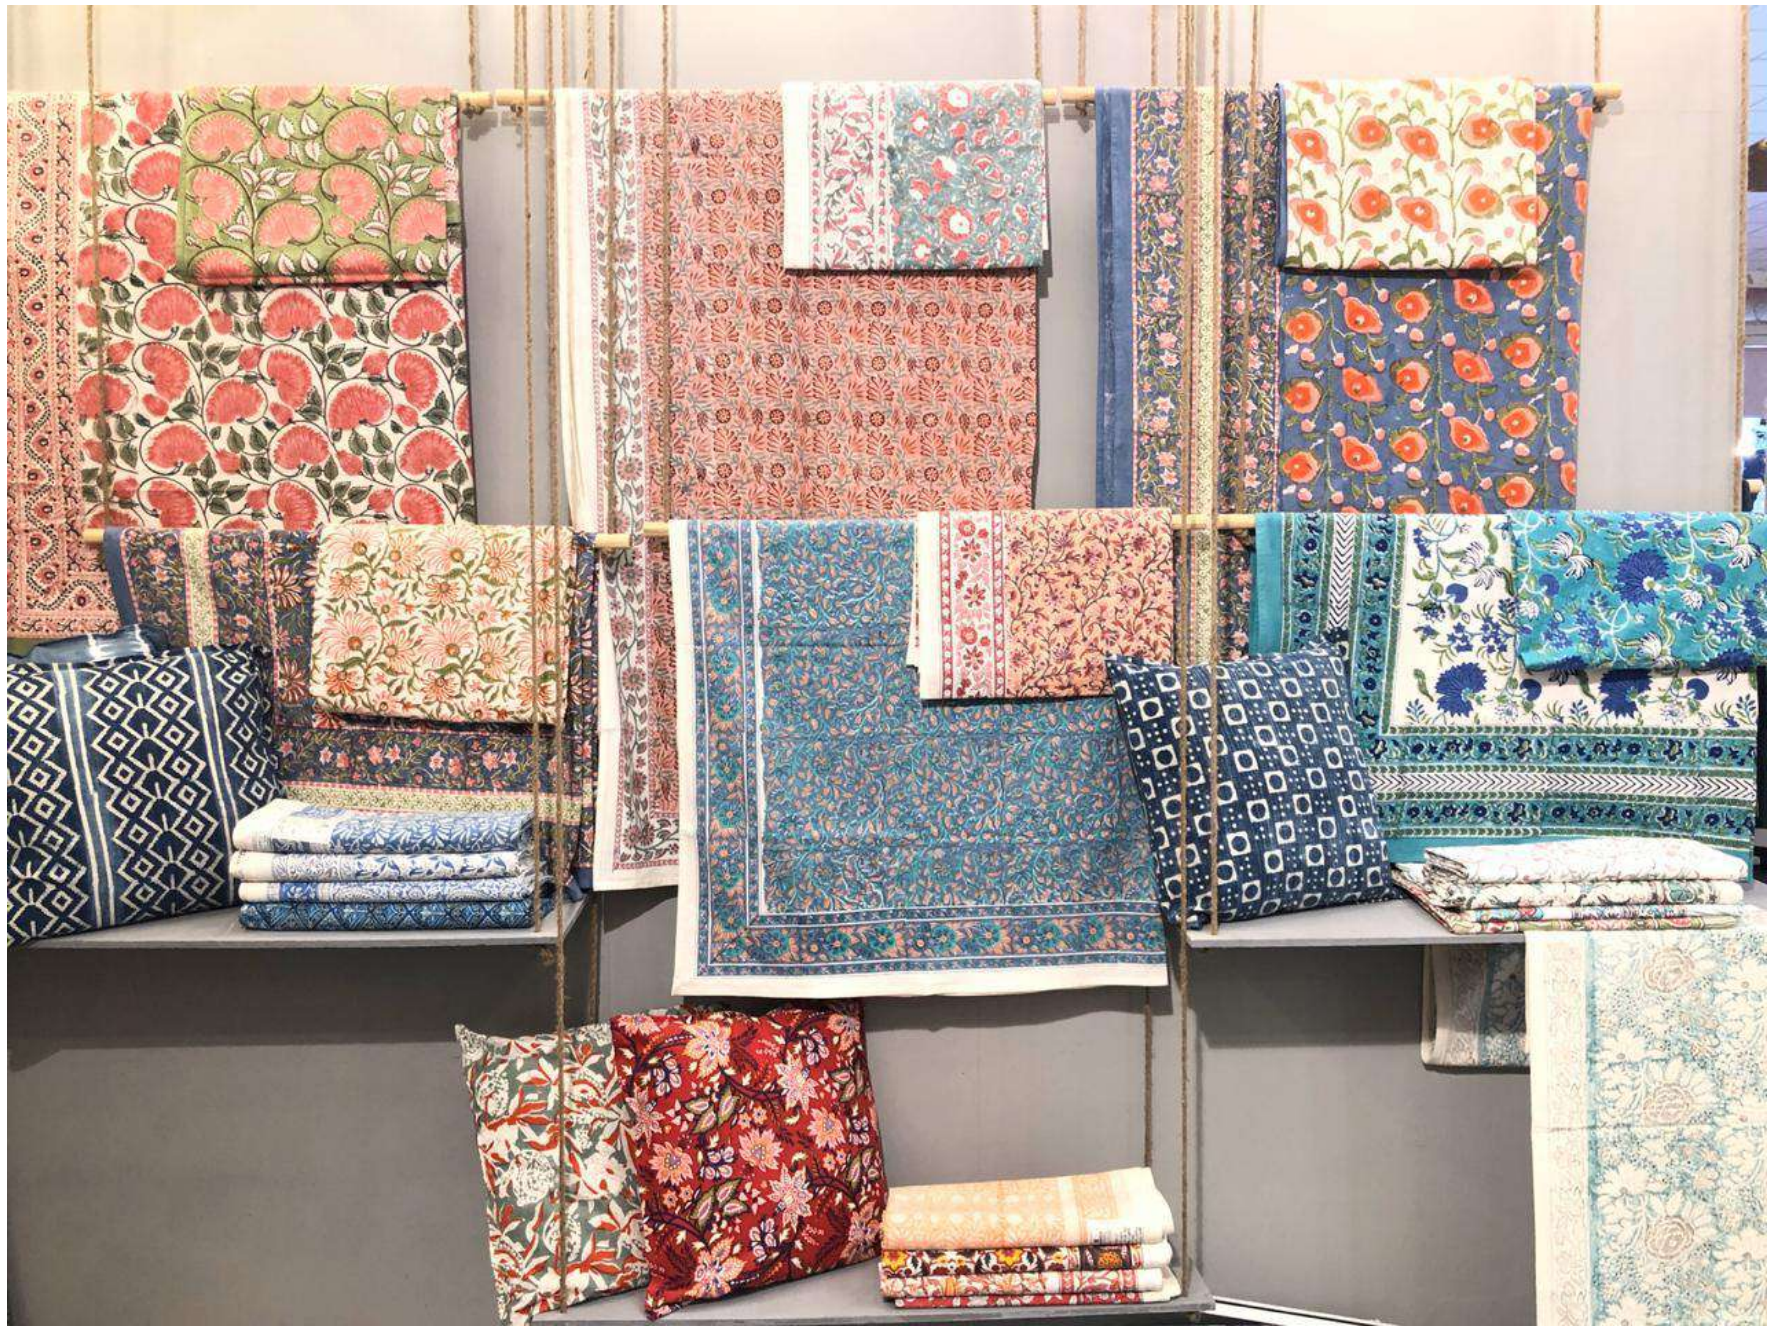

Taking our print exploration further we are also actively engaged in screen printing . Apart from providing you a large option of print designs we are also open to develop your designs exclusively. We promise you a large no. of assorted design collections with great quality , quantity and minimal price range.

GOLD , SILVER PRINT

Be it a festive season or an ordinary day , our beautiful range of gold and silver print is ideal to brighten up the mood. Available in various buti and overall pattern they are perfect to give a royal touch to any home.

MARBLING

These one of a kind patterns are handcrafted by the process of marbling. In this process paint is sprinkled on the surface of oil on water. It is then swirled by wood to create patterns which are transferred on fabric.

SHIBORI

These pieces are handcrafted by the technique of shibori in which pattern is created by resisting design through thread or clamp.
